NEW YORKERS PLAY FOR WIDENER CUP.

Travers and Herreschoff Meet Expert Quakers on Links at Noble.

NOBLE, Pa., May 31.—Jerome D. Travers, twice Metropolitan gold champion, and Fred Herreschoff, former interscholastic title-holder, were conspicuous this morning in the qualifying round of the Huntington Valley Country Club annual tournament. The contest is for a permanent trophy given by Mrs. George D. Widener, of Philadelphia. Travers won a leg in last year. Three were necessary for possession.

Twenty players started. The best score to date was made by J. S. Mather, of Philadelphia, 81. Herreschoff was 82 and Travis 83. Other widely known contestants are Dr. Simon D. Philadelphia president, H. M. Forest, member of three leading Quaker clubs, and A. W. Tillinghast, all of whom have won honors at the Atlantic City and Lakewood tournaments this season. H. B. Macfarland, the old University of Pennsylvania star, and Harold Sands, of Newport, five times champion of the Palmetto Club of Aiken, Tillinghast tied for second place at 82.
